END USER LICENSE AGREEMENT

1. DTL Font Software EULA

1.1 Read this license carefully before downloading, extracting, and installing DTL Font Software, i.e., digital typefaces produced by the Dutch Type Library. By downloading, extracting, and installing DTL Font Software you accept the entire license and it becomes a legally binding contract between you, the licensee, and the Dutch Type Library. If you do not agree with the terms and conditions of the license and therefore refuse to accept the contractual obligation under the license agreement, you are not permitted to download, extract, and install DTL Font Software.

1.2 By downloading, extracting, and installing DTL Font Software you acknowledge that you have read and understood the license, that together with the related invoice it is the complete and exclusive statement of your agreement with the Dutch Type Library regarding the purchase of DTL Font Software, and that your obligations under this agreement shall inure to the benefit of the Dutch Type Library and its designers, whose rights are licensed under this agreement.

No variation of the terms of this agreement will be enforceable against the Dutch Type Library unless the Dutch Type Library gives it expressed consent in writing signed by an officer of the Dutch Type Library. By installing the DTL Font Software you accept your own liability to comply with all terms and conditions of the license. If you do not agree completely with the license, do not download, extract, and install DTL Font Software.

1.3 The license is effective until terminated. The Dutch Type Library has the right to terminate the license immediately if you fail to comply with any term of the license. In addition, the Dutch Type Library reserves the right to claim punitive damages. Upon such termination you will destroy the original and any copies of the DTL Font Software and related documentation and cease all use of the trademarks. You may terminate the license any time by destroying the original and any copies of the DTL Font Software and related documentation.

1.4 The Dutch Type Library reserves all rights not expressly granted to you under this license agreement. The license will be governed by the laws in force in the Netherlands.

2. DTL Font Software, terms, and conditions

2.1 DTL Font Software is digital data produced by the Dutch Type Library describing typographical characters, and containing additional technology, including but not limited to, for the support for proper rendering of the glyphs and the appearance in specific font layouts. The characters have been arranged per style in fonts, in specific font formats for specific operating systems. DTL Font Software is the valuable and by copyright protected intellectual property of the Dutch Type Library and is only available directly from the Dutch Type Library.

2.2 DTL Font Software underlying this agreement is not sold to you, but placed at your disposal to use it. Only if you accept all terms and conditions of the license, you are granted a user right for DTL Font Software. The user right is limited by the terms and conditions of the license. You are granted a user right for DTL Font Software on condition that you pay the invoice that goes with the license within the term of payment. The license only becomes valid after full payment by the licensee and after it has been signed by an officer of the Dutch Type Library. In case the invoice is not paid in time, the user right is terminated immediately and any use of the software to and from that moment is automatically unauthorized. After expiration of the term of payment, the Dutch Type Library has the right to charge interest and collection costs, and to demand the return of the software and any copies.

3. User rights, proprietary rights, and obligations

3.1 The license grants you a non-exclusiv, non-assignable, limited right to use DTL Font Software. Besides the description of DTL Font Software in question, you will find the exact definition of numbers of sites and workstations for which a user license is granted to you on the attached specification and invoice you received after purchasing DTL Font Software. In case the text of the license conflicts in any way with the content of the related invoice, the invoice supersedes the license. A supplementary license from the Dutch Type Library is required for other than the specified fonts, a different number of users, and other environments than stated on the attached specification and accompanying invoice.

The Dutch Type Library does not guarantee that DTL Font Software will work properly in any environment, in particular when this is different from the specification.

3.2 You will not make or have made, or permit to be made, any copies of DTL Font Software, documentation, or any portions thereof, except one (= 1) copy solely for backup purposes. Any such copy of the DTL Font Software shall contain the same propriety notice that appears on or in the original DTL Font Software. You agree not to modify DTL Font Software, nor to adapt it in any way to a any operating system, or to convert it to another font format, including but not limited to font formats for specific use on the internet. You agree not to create derivative works or typefaces based on DTL Font Software. You agree not to change or modify the font and/or trademark names used in DTL Font Software in any form or manner.

3.3 You agree not to distribute DTL Font Software in any way, including but not limited to as a component or sub-component of other products, like electronic documents, nor to sell or lend in any way other than specified here. Embedding of DTL Font Software into electronic documents is limited to the Portable Document Format (PDF) and is only permitted in a read-only document, which means under the absolute assurance that the recipient cannot use DTL Font Software to edit the document or to create a new document. Licensee shall ensure that DTL Font Software cannot be extracted in whole or in part from said documents to the extent that licensee can control.

For aforementioned editable embedding in PDF files an additional license is required and in such a case DTL Font Software will be modified by the Dutch Type Library. The licensee is only allowed to further electronically distribute DTL Font Software as a static graphic image, for example as GIF, JPG, PNG, or EPS file.

3.4 It is only allowed to send DTL Font Software together with digital documents that have to be reproduced in one way or another to third parties, for example service bureaus and printing offices, under the following conditions:
– Third parties may only use the DTL Font Software passively, i.e., for direct reproduction of the documents.
– Any active use of DTL Font Software by third parties, such as for creating or modifying documents, requires an additional license for the third parties.

3.5 Embedding DTL Font Software in web pages is only permitted for the special versions the Dutch Type Library produces for use on the internet, including but not limited to @font-face formats. These special webfont formats require an additional license fee. The same is applicable for the use of DTL Font Software in electronic publications (ePub) and for embedding DTL Font Software in applications.

3.6 Licensee may not distribute or embed DTL Font Software in any manner other than described above without a separate written license from the Dutch Type Library. If the licensee wishes to distribute or embed DTL Font Software in an editable document other than specified, a special request must be made to the Dutch Type Library to extend the license. This extension of the license agreement is subject to an additional fee.

4. No other rights

4.1 The Dutch Type Library retains title and ownership of the DTL Font Software, regardless of the form or media in or on which the original and other copies may located. This also implies that all rights to DTL Font Software, including but not limited to the intellectual property rights on the type design and data, copyright, and trademark, remain with the Dutch Type Library.

5. Limited warranty, liability, and indemnification

5.1 The Dutch Type Library warrants that the DTL Font Software in question is expected to work properly in accordance with specifications of the Dutch Type Library, in the environment as described on the accompanying invoice. However, the Dutch Type Library does not and cannot warrant the performance or results you may obtain by using the DTL Font Software or documentation. The Dutch Type Library does not make any warrants of any kind, either expressed or implied, including but not limited to the implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose. DTL Font Software is provided 'as is'.

5.2 You agree to indemnify and hold the Dutch Type Library harmless from and against any claims or damage which may result from your breach of this license agreement.

5.3 In no event will the Dutch Type Library be liable to you for consequential or incidental damage, including damage from loss of business profits or savings, business interruption, loss of business information, and the like, or for claims by any party arising out of the use of, or inability to use DTL Font Software, even if the Dutch Type Library has been informed and/or advised of the possibility of such damage.
