The T (text: ±18 pts and smaller) and D (display: ± 24 pts and larger) codes refer to the differences in design and contrast. The D versions have for instance a higher contrast, are somewhat lighter and have a tighter spacing. Please note that the fonts have no physical limitations; the point sizes presented here are only meant as guidelines.

All fonts of the DTL Porta News typeface for Western European languages in the PostScript Type1 and TrueType formats for Mac os or Windows can be licensed separately, in any combination.

A single user license for the complete Text version of the DTL Porta News typeface for Western European languages in one of these two formats costs € 900 (that is € 1000 minus 10% discount).

A single user license for the complete Display version of the DTL Porta News typeface for Western European languages in one of these two formats costs € 900 (that is € 1000 minus 10% discount).

Prices listed in this overview are for a single user license, that is a user right for one stand-alone CPU.

Prices are end-user ones exclusive duties or taxes like v.a.t. and exclusive shipment.

If you want to use the fonts on more than one computer, please contact the Dutch Type Library for a quote via e-mail at sales@dutchtypelibrary.com
